

Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar

Advertisement for 'Project Staff' at the Centre of Excellence for Safety Engineering

IIT Gandhinagar invites applications for 1 Project Staff position at the Centre of Excellence for Safety Engineering. This Centre has been set up with the aim of promoting Inter-disciplinary Research in the area of Safety. The work involves supporting:

- Ongoing projects at the Centre
- Developing technical articles and material
- Communication with different stakeholders including industry
- Managing routine tasks of the Centre

Eligibility Criteria:

- BTech degree in Chemical Engineering / Mechanical Engineering or equivalent from reputed institute
- Technical writing and verbal communication skills.
- Strong motivation to participate in research and product development projects.

Preferred background/skills:

- Has developed Technical News Bulletins / articles.
- Worked on Experimental Projects

Compensation and term of position:

Compensation will be 18,000/- per month (consolidated salary). Initial appointment will be for 1 year with the possibility of renewal for the 2nd year depending on performance.

How to apply:

Those interested are requested to e-mail a single zipped file containing (1) Curriculum vitae highlighting education and expertise, (2) List of referees and their contact details, (3) one page statement of purpose. The candidate with product development experience will be preferred. Please apply and send your application to chinmayg@iitgn.ac.in.

Please note that your single zipped file should be named as <your last name>_CoESE_iitgn.zip and the subject line of the email should be "CoE for Safety Engineering, November 30, 2017"

For any queries regarding the research area, please feel free to contact Prof. Chinmay Ghoroi at chinmayg@iitgn.ac.in.