

Development centre set up at IIT-Gn

IIT-Gandhinagar has set up a Centre for Sustainable Development to undertake research on water, pollution, waste management, energy, natural resources and climate change. The centre will research sustainability and related challenges to promote cost-effective solutions through its strong outreach and technology-transfer programmes. The centre will collaborate with policy makers and industry.

Title: Development centre set up at IITGN

Source: DNA (Page no. 3)

Date: 31-01-2019