

Lecture at IITGn to focus on music

The Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar is hosting a lecture that focusses on ancient musical instruments. As part of Indian Knowledge Systems course at IITGn, professor Anurag Gupta of IIT Delhi in the first lecture will highlight the unique design features of some of the ancient musical instruments including Tabla, Iddakka, and the drone instrument Tanpura, discussing their history and using mathematical models to study their acoustics.

Title: Lecture at IITGn to focus on music

Source: DNA (Page no. 2)

Date: 14-03-2019